with Marsha Lynn Hudson

Brendon Boyd, Tower Insurance & Financial Services

I had the pleasure of working with Marsha. She was very helpful with helping me understand the world of social media. I gained lots of insight on the algorithm and recommended content. I look back and am glad that I took that first step forward to improve my business by contacting Marsha.

My knowledge was at a novice level prior to receiving coaching from Marsha. After participating in her coaching sessions. I feel more effective and confident in marketing my business on social media.

My followers on social media have increased by around 30% collectively. I learned how to create links that lead people off of social media and directly to my website.

Working with Marsha has been a great experience. I am a complete novice to a social media and online marketing. I signed up for her 5 week program and in just 2 weeks, I have learned how to navigate Canva, publish Instagram reels and stories, and create lead magnets to generate an email list. I am extremely happy that I found her. Can't wait to see what I will learn by the end of the program!
